Tim Grimm is a singer/songwriter and actor. He has toured and recorded with his friend, Ramblin' Jack Elliott and appeared with Harrison Ford in Clear and Present Danger. Among musical awards Tim's won, The Back Fields was named Best Americana Album in the 2006 Just Plain Folks Music Awards in LA. After co-starring for 2 seasons on the NBC drama Reasonable Doubts and appearing in several films, Tim returned home to Indiana, where he now lives with his wife and sons on an 80 acre farm. Tim has performed in theaters, coffeehouses and festivals around the U.S.. Tim's recent projects include guest spots on television's CHICAGO CODE, and an untitled Dennis Quaid film.

Our opening act is Moose River, whose members are Edgar's founders, husband and wife Steve (vocals, guitar) and Kendra (vocals, autoharp and more) with Jon Mendelson on percussion. Steve ran Edgar's Place with Kendra's help for over 16 years and still runs our sound system. Steve and Kendra are key in keeping our concerts running smoothly.

We know you will enjoy their engaging repertoire.
