

Edgar's Place Coffee House

Proudly presents

Heather Styka

Saturday, April 12th at 8:00 pm

Adults: $15.00

Chicago-bred, Maine-based songwriter Heather Styka's tunes have a vintage familiarity, but her image-heavy lyrics are as smart and unexpected as they are hummable, delivered with a distinctive guitar style and a pure, soulful voice. In addition to numerous songwriting awards, Styka's 2011 release Lifeboats for Atlantis received critical praise, hitting #3 on the national FOLK-DJ charts.

"One of the more original of the many contemporary singer-songwriters touring the US... she paints landscapes and relationships in her well thought out compositions."

-Tom May, River City Folk

"...truly an infectious artist... the pin drop moments are amazing."

-Cyrus Rhodes, Muse's Muse

"Stands out among the mass of newcomers to the folk circuit... Heather knows the most beautiful and intriguing stories to convey."

- John Schoenmakers (Alt Country Forum, Netherlands)
