Folksinger Michael Johnathon has a long-standing career in the arts as a songwriter, musician, playwright, composer of the opera and as the host of the live audience broadcast of the WoodSongs Old Time Radio Hour with a radio audience with over two million listeners each week on 500 public radio stations, public television coast-to-coast, plus American Forces Radio Network in 173 nations and now Friday evenings on RFD-TV. Michael performs solo with his Martin guitar, long neck banjo and a wealth of stories ... moving, powerful and often funny. He's the touring, log cabin dwelling, Mother Earth News columnist, organic gardening, front porch banjo picking, guitar playing host of WoodSongs.

Take the inventiveness of Bob Dylan, the melodic voice of John Denver, add the showmanship of Garrison Keillor and that's Michael Johnathon."
