The President's Column AUGUST 2025 by Laurene Lambertino-Urquizo

File this one under the title, "Too Insane to be Believed." Recently, Rob Worsoff, a producer for the popular "Duck Dynasty" television show on the A&E cable channel pitched an idea to Kristi Noem, Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) for a reality show where immigrants would compete for a fast-tracked path to U.S. citizenship. This idea is in the initial stages of being explored. Worsoff stated that "We need a national conversation of what it means to be an American. We need to be reminded of how proud and how much of an honor it is..." The competitions would be relevant to the states where they film each episode, such as rafting in Colorado.

Twelve pre-vetted immigrants would participate in challenges across the country and demonstrate their "Americanness." This plot mirrors the premise for the popular movie, "The Hunger Games" or the show, "Squid Games," where starving people fight over food for entertainment. The proposed show is tentatively titled "The American."

This latest level of cruelty being displayed by members of our government is truly astounding. As Unitarian Universalists, our first Principle declares, "The inherent worth and dignity of every person." This is perhaps our most important principle as it guides our sense of compassion and empathy for each person, regardless of who they are. This idea is expressed in the biblical concept of loving one's neighbor as you would yourself, and the parable of "The Good Samaritan" further illustrates this idea.

To transform the pain of immigrants, many escaping real danger in their countries of origin, into entertainment for the enjoyment of a segment of our country is reminiscent of Roman gladiatorial games known as 'Panem et Circenses' (Bread and Circuses). These blood sports were accompanied by the distribution of free food to the public to distract them from political issues and maintain social order.

Could there be anything crueler than attempting to turn people's suffering and pain into entertainment? Is this an acceptable form of treatment for these immigrants? This should truly horrify us and that it is even being considered. Are we, as a country, losing our humanity? How will we get it back, or can we?

ICE Deportation of Immigrants – Are you concerned about the mass deportation of immigrants and what it means for our communities? President Laurene Lambertino-Urquizo (lurquizo@gmail.com) is looking for people who want to get involved on this issue. Please be in touch with her to find out what volunteers can do to help protest and/or mitigate deportations.

Volunteer Recognitions

Have you noticed the speaker's name on the sign out at Western Avenue? Each week Jodi Libretti changes the name on the sign to reflect the upcoming speaker's name. Thank you Jodi for taking responsibility for this task!

Volunteer Opportunities!

Are you willing to commit to a Sunday or two each month? We need Ushers and Greeters, Zoom hosts and Sexton setup assistance. Please get involved! Contact Marilyn Ragland (mexmasrag@aol.com) for details on the Sexton team; Joyce Sligar (jsligar02@gmail.com) for Ushers and Greeters; and Jodi Libretti (jlibretti@sbcglobal.net) for the Zoom hosts.

There are many interesting tasks that need attention. Would you like to help beautify and maintain our building and grounds? Please get involved. Adopt a spot or task that you will be responsible for.

Please contact with the office (708-481-5339 or churchadmin@uuccpf.org) for more information or to arrange access to the building and supplies.

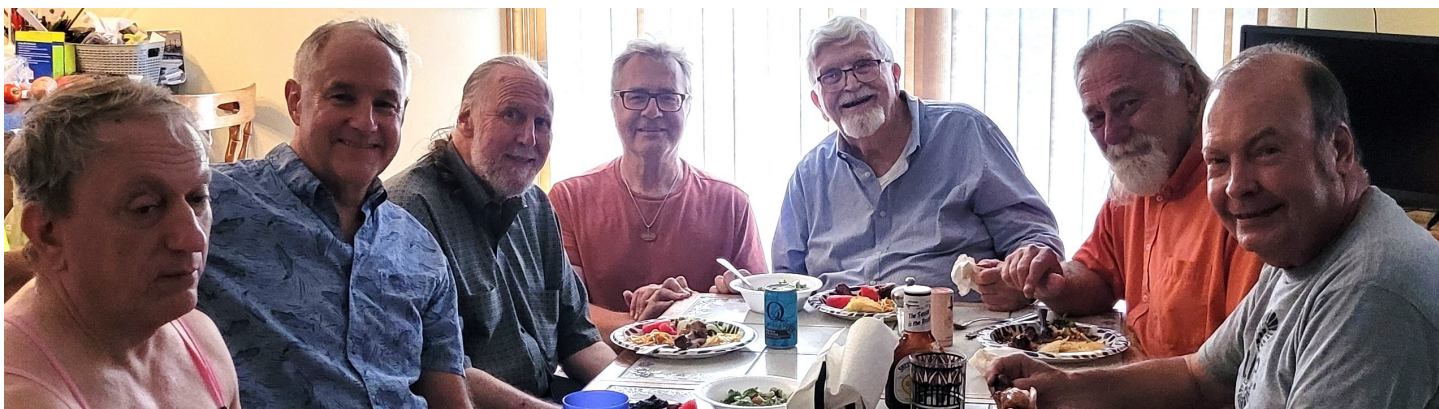

Financial Update

We closed out the 2024-25 Fiscal Year with a net gain of $7,809 in Operating Funds, primarily due to increased rental fund. We also had a donation to the Capital Fund of $35,368.94 from the Matteson estate. We can thank the Rental Team for the outstanding income their rentals have brought us this year, as well as fondly remembering Dave Matteson and his many contributions to this congregation. The Endowment Fund also saw a net gain of approximately $7,475 or 6.7% during the 2024-25 Fiscal Year. Exact figures will be available in August.

An additional check for $220 has been sent to Paloma Furst Chavira to help cover her summer travel expenses. She will be playing with the National Youth Orchestra on a multi-country tour of Asia. Thank you for your generosity!

Nancy Irons, UUCU Treasurer

The UUCU Men's Group gathered at Bruce Swiecicki's house on Sunday July 20th to share a meal and some good discussion. We invite all men of UUCU to participate in the monthly discussions that are held on Zoom, typically the first Sunday evening of the month. We start those discussions up again in October. For more information, contact Allan Lindrup, Richard Lewis, Colin Kirchner or Bruce Swiecicki.

Support the Solidarity Circle

Solidarity Circle Report

During April Roger Lewis finally got an Illinois state ID and got his name corrected on his Social Security card and records. So he was in a position to work. As Roger was eager to get to work and earn money, he has not pursued some things that would have led to either a more fulfilling or more secure job. Through a social service agency he got a transitional job with a firm that does demolition work in the building industry. As he proved himself to be both a reliable and hard worker, Roger was offered and accepted a position as a regular employee of that demolition firm after his 4 to 6 weeks of transitional work.

Roger's mother, with whom he did not have a close relationship, died in May. He was able to get permission from his parole officer to travel to Louisville, KY, to attend her memorial service.

By early June members and friends of UUCC had contributed over $1,000 to UUCC's Solidarity Fund, so the matching $1,000 was also contributed.. Roger's largest regular need for funds is for his Ventra card, while other expenses are irregular.

The members of Roger's Solidarity Circle meet with him about every 4 to 6 weeks, over lunch, to discuss his plans, provide advice and support.

Roger's miscellaneous expenses, which at this time are generally paid by Allan Lindrup, are reimbursed out of UUCC's Solidarity Circle fund. To make a contribution to that fund, make your check or other donation payable to UUCC, with Solidarity Circle in the Note section.

Thank you, Allan Lindrup

GREEN SANCTUARY BY JEFF GREEN – AUGUST 2025

We have gone from renewable energy, electric cars being impractical, to almost becoming standard. It's not too far away. President number 47 is really just a blip in the road to where society is going right now. The above is the hard infrastructure wins our human society has accomplished. Below is a softer win based on the International Court of Justice. It was a 15 to 0 ruling spelled out below. This is described as a significant diplomatic tool that helps countries form more aggressive climate policies.

Below is the line I put into the artificial intelligence to help me sum up its finding.

The International Court of Justice ruling on climate change, how will that affect our action on climate change

Claude Haiku 3.5

On March 20, 2024, the International Court of Justice (ICJ) issued a landmark advisory opinion on climate change, which is significant but not legally binding. Here are the key details:

Ruling Highlights:

- First comprehensive global advisory opinion on state obligations regarding climate change
- Recognized climate change as a threat to human rights

Affirmed that states have legal obligations to protect against climate change impacts

Key Implications:

1. Legal Framework

- Established that states have a duty to prevent significant environmental harm
- Emphasized protection of vulnerable populations and ecosystems

2. Potential Actions

- Encourages states to:
- Reduce greenhouse gas emissions
- Develop comprehensive climate protection strategies
- Provide support to most vulnerable countries
- Implement more aggressive climate mitigation policies

3. Limitations

- Advisory opinion is not directly enforceable
- Relies on diplomatic pressure and moral authority
- Requires voluntary compliance by nations

continued

Expected Impacts:

- Increased legal pressure on high-emission countries
- Potential for more climate litigation
- Stronger international climate negotiations

Potential acceleration of national climate policies

While not a binding ruling, the ICJ opinion represents a significant diplomatic and legal milestone in global climate action, potentially influencing future policy and international cooperation.

In this disappointing time for our sustainability, renewable energy and sustainability are gaining momentum and power in the world. Otherwise, why would the fossil fuel industry be fighting back so hard? A part of us has come together as a group to come this far, and there is more to go. Why stop now? I find the small and large wins all enjoyable. Let's work together to make more.

As always, thank you for making Green Sanctuary part of your reading time. Jeff Green and the rest of the Green Sanctuary team.

I attended General Assembly of The Unitarian Universalist Association (Baltimore) 2025 virtually on the Covenant Team as a volunteer. Basically, The UUA paid my registration in return for 20 hours of service. I could watch whatever I chose and can share some Knowledge. I learned from professional counselors how to answer complaints.

Uucc voted yes on keeping our 7 principles and 6 sources at the Annual meeting. Here is a LINK to those documents. They are also displayed on the bulletin board.

"Dignity" by Dan Kenney

Our celebrant is retired DeKalb, Illinois high school teacher Dan Kenney. He will be exploring Tim Shriver's Dignity Index and Dignity Pledge - an instrument for healing America's divisions. Dan is a long-time member of the UU Congregation of DeKalb, and the founder of DeKalb County Community Gardens (now "Rooted for Good"), which began as a backyard effort to grow a few vegetables and now feeds thousands of DeKalbans with weekly free food distributions. Dan is a regular contributor to WNIJ Public Radio's "Perspectives" series.

UUMUAC 3rd Wednesday Vesper Service September 17, 2025
"Church of the Free Spirit" by Dr. Matthew Shear

What shall we call a true liberal religion? I contend that labels from past centuries will not do in our time. In this service I will explore concepts I've come to believe are essential to a workable intersection of liberalism with religion and society.

Dr. Matthew Shear is a 1980 graduate of the New England College of Optometry and completed a post-graduate program from the Baltimore Academy for Behavioral Optometry in 2002. He has also trained as a peer counselor, eventually teaching the technique to others. His particular interest is in the effects of misperception on our understanding of ourselves and the world, and how that affects our behaviors. This focus eventually led him from clinical practice to becoming a religious professional. He began preaching lay led services in 2007, and in 2018 was engaged by Channing Church in Rockland, MA as their full time Preacher, where he served for two years. A former Board member of UUMUAC, he is still an occasional preacher of their 3rd Wednesday Vesper services and elsewhere.

Celebrate Lughnasa August 1st

<https://www.kajoralovely.com/lovely-blog/2019/7/28/lughnasadh>

Lughnasa is a harvest festival, marking the end of the period of summer growth and the beginning of the autumn harvest. Lughnasa celebrates the fruition of the year's work with the weaning of calves and lambs, the ripening of corn, and the first apples, pears, blackberries, and grapes.

Lughnasa is a time to enjoy the fruits of the summer, the Sun, and the bounty that comes with the warmer months of the year. You can celebrate Lughnasa by eating seasonal fruit and vegetables, baking your favorite bread, having a party with your friends and loved ones, or by enjoying the sun.

Joliet Unitarian Universalist Community Church will be hosting a Lughnasa celebration on Saturday, August 1st at 6:30 pm. This will be a gathering of the clans, with CUUPs members from several area UU churches. If you would like to carpool, coordinate with Angela Denk (angeladenk@gmail.com).

BEAUTIFUL THING

Shy Jamie (Glen Berry) and athletic Ste (Scott Neal) are teen boys who live near each other in the London projects. Both boys think they could be gay, and finally explore their feelings when Ste is allowed to stay over at Jamie's place after an incident with his abusive father. There, the boys grow close and open themselves up to the idea of homosexuality, while Jamie's caring mother, Sandra (Linda Henry), and quirky teen neighbor, Leah (Tameka Empson), offer much needed emotional support.

Rainbow Café is a social event that provides a welcoming and safe environment for single or partnered gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender adults, and their allies. Group is open to anyone regardless of their sexual orientation.

We meet every third Friday at 7PM to watch a LGBTQ film.

Join the discussion after the film.

Invite friends!

Optional - bring snacks to share.
